How to receive money on PayPal

To receive money on your PayPal account, you will need to provide the sender with: the email address your PayPal account is registered under.

The sender enters your email address into a field in their PayPal account and chooses how much they want to send, and then it will head your way. You will get an email alert when you have received money.

Once you've received the funds, you may want to transfer it to your bank account. Here's how to do that.

Confirming your email address with PayPal:

You'll need to follow these instructions:

When you first added that email address to your PayPal account, PayPal sent you a confirmation email – just find that email and click the link in it to confirm your email address.

If you can't find PayPal's confirmation email, don't worry – you can resend it. Here's how: To confirm your email address, all you need to do is

1. Log in to your PayPal account
2. Go to your My Account page
3. Click on the Settings button in the top right corner of the page (the gear icon)
4. Find the Email Address section in the column on the right
5. Find the "Unconfirmed" email address
6. Click the Edit button
7. Click the Confirm this email address button
8. Check your personal email inbox for the verification link
